

Fethard Killusty Angling Club

Rules & Conditions

The aims of the Angling Club shall be to promote and develop fishing in the locality and to encourage respect for landowners property.

The management of the club shall consist of a Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer and a committee to be elected at the A.G.M. All officers must be paid - up members and only paid-up members may vote at the A.G.M. Five members may form a quorum for Committee meetings.

Where the Committee is satisfied of misconduct in any form, they shall have the power to disqualify the said person from any membership or card. The Committee will accept responsibility for such action and will notify the treasurer of their decision.

Should any emergency arise or any matter not covered, the Committee shall have the power to deal with same.

Club waters can only be fished with fly rods and fly's only.

Trout measuring nine inches from tip of head to end of tail can only be kept.

A bag limit of six trout applies any trout caught after this must be released.